Jarred Goodstein

Area of Expertise

Jarred Goodstein has an extensive background in office lease negotiations, market knowledge, and financial analysis of commercial real estate in South Florida. He specializes in landlord representation and commercial sales of prominent office buildings throughout South Florida as well as leasing advisory services to select occupiers.

Business and Educational Background

Jarred joined Team Kingsley-Rutchik at Colliers after thirteen years as a Senior Associate in the Brokerage Services Division of CBRE and is now part of a team of eight passionate, driven commercial real estate professionals, offering their expertise to office and industrial occupiers and investors across South Florida. Currently, the team delivers institutional agency leasing services to 21 clients, as well as occupier advisory services to tenants in South Florida and across the United States

Jarred received his Bachelor of Arts degree in Real Estate from Florida Atlantic University.
